

Absence from work

You only need to see your GP for a fit note if you are off work through illness for more than 7 consecutive days.

You do not need to see your GP if:

- » You are off work through illness for less than 7 consecutive days.
- » You are returning to work after illness, you do not require a return to work certificate.