

Patients with dental problems

Your GP is not able to fully assess and treat dental problems.

If you have a toothache or other dental issue you should contact your dentist or call 111 if your usual dentist is closed or you are not registered with a dentist.