

NCL Key Mental Health Contacts

Reference poster for urgent mental health support, Community SPA contacts and clinical escalation routes

CRISIS CONTACTS

Immediate danger / life threat	Call 999 for immediate danger, a physical health emergency including overdose, or a threat to life. Individuals should attend an emergency department or call 999.
24/7 crisis support	NHS 111 mental health option: NHS 111, select the mental health option. Local crisis teams remain the primary route for urgent mental health support and should be used as the first point of contact.
Borough crisis contacts	Our 24/7 crisis telephone service is the first point of contact for people who are in mental health crisis and who live in NLFT. You can call this number 0800 917 3333 for Camden and Islington (for patients and professionals) to get help or advice in a crisis from our trained mental health advisors and clinicians, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, 365 days a year. 020 8702 3500 is the number for Barnet, Enfield and Haringey (for professionals only). NLFT is working on developing one phone line in the near future
Urgent assessment	Mental Health Clinical Assessment Services (MHCAS) provide an alternative to emergency departments for people experiencing a mental health crisis who require urgent assessment and intervention.
